4.5. Decisions of the supervisory board

- 4.5.1. The supervisory board shall adopt resolutions at the meeting of the supervisory board or without convening a meeting pursuant to the procedure provided for in these articles of association, the rules of procedure of the supervisory board, and other organisational documents of the Company and the law.
- 4.5.2. The meeting is convened by the chairman of the supervisory board. The agenda of the meeting of the supervisory board and the holding of the meeting of the supervisory board shall be announced at least five (5) working days in advance.
- 4.5.3. A member of the supervisory board may attend the meeting of the supervisory board and exercise their rights by electronic means without being physically present at the meeting, by real-time two-way communication or other similar electronic means that allow the shareholder, while at a remote location, to follow and speak at the meeting and vote in any matters that have been tabled for resolution.
- 4.5.4. The meeting of the supervisory board has a quorum if more than half of the members of the supervisory board participate in it.
- 4.5.5. Upon adoption of a resolution without convening a meeting of the supervisory board, the chairman of the supervisory board shall send the relevant draft resolution to all members of the supervisory board, setting a term within which the members of the supervisory board shall submit their written opinion on the resolution. If a member of the supervisory board does not indicate within that period whether they are in favour or against the decision, they shall be deemed to have voted against the decision.
- 4.5.6. A resolution of the supervisory board is adopted if more than half of the members of the supervisory board who participated in the voting cast their vote in favour of it. If a resolution is adopted in the manner provided for in clause 4.5.5 without convening a meeting of the supervisory board, the resolution is adopted if more than half of all members of the supervisory board vote in favour of the resolution. In the event of a tie, the chairman of the supervisory board shall have the casting vote. A resolution of the supervisory board shall also be deemed adopted if the resolution is made in writing and is signed by all members of the supervisory board.

5. MANAGEMENT BOARD

5.1. Competence of the management board

- 5.1.1. The management board is the managing body of the Company which represents and manages the Company. The management board shall adhere to the lawful orders of the supervisory board when managing the Company. Transactions which are beyond the scope of everyday economic activities may only be concluded by the management board with the consent of the supervisory board. Such transactions, which are beyond the scope of everyday economic activities and require the consent of the supervisory board, include among others those listed in clause 4.1.14 of these articles of association.
- 5.1.2. The management board undertakes to send the supervisory board a monthly overview of the previous month's economic activities and results, including the Company's balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement in a cumulative record for the previous month and from the beginning of the year and in comparison with the budget and the previous calendar year, as well as a monthly report explaining the Company's financial results.
- 5.1.3. No later than in November of each calendar year, the management board shall submit for approval to the supervisory board the budget and the investment plan for the following calendar year, and in April of each calendar year the strategic plan for the next five (5) years.
- 5.1.4. The management board shall organise the functioning and the consistent implementation of the internal control system.

5.2. Members of the management board

The management board shall consist of two (2) to five (5) members. The members of the management board are elected and removed by a resolution of the supervisory board. A member of the management board is elected for three (3) years.

5.3. Representation

Two (2) members of the management board may jointly represent the Company in concluding a transaction or another legal act.

5.4. Remuneration of the members of the management board

5.4.1. The amount of remuneration payable to a member of the management board and the procedure for the payment of the remuneration shall be determined by a resolution of the supervisory board in accordance with the Principles of Remuneration approved by the supervisory board and approved by the general meeting of shareholders.

5.4.2. The general meeting of shareholders shall vote on the Principles of Remuneration at least once every four years. Significant changes to the Principles of Remuneration shall be submitted each time to the general meeting of shareholders for voting.

6. GOOD CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company is obliged to implement good corporate governance practices and describe its observance in the corporate governance report included in the annual report. The corporate governance report shall contain the information required by the Accounting Act and good corporate governance practices.

7. AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Company has an audit committee. The audit committee shall consist of three (3) members, of which at least two (2) members shall be independent from the Company (i.e., meet the qualifications of independence as set out in the appendix to the good corporate governance). The members of the audit committee are elected and recalled by the supervisory board. The supervisory board shall elect the members of the audit committee for a term of three (3) years.

8. AUDITING

The auditor(s) shall be appointed and the number of auditors shall be determined by the general meeting of shareholders for the performance of a non-recurrent audit or for a specified term, including that the general meeting of shareholders determines the procedure for remuneration of the auditor(s).

9. FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Company is a calendar year.

10. RESERVE CAPITAL

The amount of the reserve capital of the Company is 1/10 of the share capital, unless otherwise provided by the law. Until this amount is reached, 1/20 of the Company's net profit is transferred to the reserve capital every year.

11. VOLUNTARY FUNDING RESERVE

- 11.1. The Company may have a voluntary funding reserve. The formation of the voluntary funding reserve and the making of contributions shall be decided by the general meeting of shareholders in accordance with the law and these articles of association. Contributions to the voluntary funding reserve are voluntary.
- 11.2. Contributions to the voluntary funding reserve may be monetary or non-monetary. The value of the non-monetary contribution to the voluntary funding reserve shall be assessed in accordance with the procedure provided for in clause 2.4.2 of these articles of association, and the appraisal of the value of the contribution shall be verified by an auditor.
- 11.3. Upon making a contribution, a shareholder's claim against the Company may be set off by a decision of the general meeting of shareholders, provided that this does not harm the interests of the Company or its creditors. The claim shall be appraised as non-monetary contribution.
- 11.4. The voluntary funding reserve can also be increased at the expense of the Company's available equity without making contributions. The increase of the voluntary financing reserve at the expense of equity can be decided on the basis of the annual report or interim balance sheet approved by the general meeting of shareholders.
- 11.5. A shareholder who has made a contribution to the voluntary financing reserve does not acquire any right of claim against the Company in respect of the contribution or the right to receive interest or other income on the contribution.
- 11.6. Based on the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders of the Company, the voluntary funding reserve may be used:
 - 11.6.1. to cover the Company's losses;
 - 11.6.2. to increase the share capital of the Company through a bonus issue;
 - 11.6.3. to form other equity reserves of the Company.
- 11.7. Payments may be made to the shareholders of the Company from the voluntary financing reserve on the basis of the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders in proportion to the shareholding of each shareholder in the share capital of the Company. No payments may be made to the shareholders of the Company from the voluntary funding reserve if, as a result, the net assets of the Company would be less than the total amount of share capital and reserves, the payment of which to the shareholders is not permitted by law.
- 11.8. The voluntary funding reserve shall be reflected in the Company's equity as a reserve for other equity.

12. TERMINATION OF THE COMPANY

The liquidators of the Company shall be the members of the management board, unless otherwise prescribed by a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders or a court judgement. If there is more than one liquidator, the Company may be represented by two (2) liquidators jointly. Upon liquidation of the Company, the remaining assets may also be distributed among the shareholders in other ways than in monetary payments.

These articles of association have been approved by the resolution of the ~~general meeting~~~~sole shareholder~~ of the Company on ~~17~~~~4~~ ~~May~~~~September~~ 202~~2~~~~1~~.
